

Asia Weekly in “Top 10 Front Cover” list by Media magazine in Hong Kong

Asia Weekly has recently been placed in Media magazine’s “Top 10 Front Cover” list of 2007. Media’s bumper issue, which came out on December 14th 2007, features top 10 lists concerning the media, marketing, and advertising industries in the Asia-Pacific region.

The cover story in Asia Weekly’s Issue 31 highlights the brutal crackdown on protesters in Burma, and the weak condemnation of the ruling military junta's actions by neighbouring countries.

Media commends Asia Weekly.

“The illustration of a soldier beating up defenceless monks while bystanders pretend that nothing is happening was spot-on in describing the junta crackdown in Myanmar. Kudos to the publication for telling it as it is”.

Asia Weekly is owned by HK’s Legend Strategic Consultancy Ltd., and is Asia’s first weekly English news magazine in 25 years. Headed by the British writer Jasper Becker and edited by an international team of award-winning journalists, Asia Weekly tracks Asia’s major stories in a unique, concise format. The magazine is now distributed in 12 countries and territories around Asia, and gives you the big stories and hottest issues in Asia in an unbiased and easy to read version.

Media is Asia-Pacific’s premier title for the news and trends in the media, advertising, and marketing industries. It is owned by UK’s Haymarket Publishing Ltd., also publishers of Campaign and Marketing.
